MCC Relief Sale draws thousands to New Hamburg

GARY WEST

Gazette Correspondent

The annual Mennonite Relief Sale once again drew thousands of visitors to New Hamburg and Waterloo Region, turning the small southwestern Ontario town into a bustling hub of activity.

Lineups stretched for hours as visitors waited for traditional Mennonite baking and the always popular French fries served up by Baden's Shantz Mennonite Church. In addition to the quilts – on display and up for auction – and freshly made baked goods like pies and pastries, the event also featured local vendors and community groups from across the region.

Despite the large crowds, traffic and parking were well organized, earning praise for the volunteers and relief sale members who kept everything running smoothly.

On Saturday, a lively work-play live auction took place near the racetrack, with local auctioneers Robert Beer and Greg Gerber briskly moving through 95 donated items. Up for grabs were gift cards from local businesses, campfire grills, pickleball passes, flying lessons and even professional sports tickets.

The auction's final items were a high-light: an antique Massey Ferguson 35 diesel tractor, completely refurbished by the North Easthope Antique Tractor Club (NEAT) and two lawn tractors. The Massey Ferguson fetched $10,250 from a buyer in Pembroke, while the John Deere lawnmower sold for $1,300 and the Wheel Horse lawnmower with trailer brought in $450.

All funds raised during the Friday evening and Saturday auction sales support the ongoing work of the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC), which provides aid to communities in need both locally and around the world.

The cool and sometimes windy weather didn't stop the thousands who visited the MCC Relief Sale on Friday evening and throughout Saturday. The tractors auctioned off raised $11,000 for MCC.
