

July 27 Baseball week

A League of Wilmot's Own

During the great depression there was one team that brightened the spirits of Wilmot residents. It was a women's softball team called the "Irish Colleens." Named in honour of their coach D.W. "Irish" Culbert. They drew huge crowds from the surrounding area. Their uniforms were "Kelly green" wool jerseys with matching shorts and green & white banded wool socks.

Some of the players during included: Helen Hostetler- 1st base, Catherine Steiner-right field, P. Rieder- 2nd base, Josephine Haunn-pitcher & 3rd base, Irene Hartman- short stop, Ethel Panchen- catcher, K. Bell- 3rd base & pitcher, Fern Kropf- centre field, A.Hartman- left field, Ann Dietrich, and Marguerite Geiger.